JETT-WHITE TRIAL.

Jury Is Selected For the Second Time--All But One Farmers.

Dilatory Motions of Defense Are Overruled--B. J. Ewen Arrested So as to Be Given Protection.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 29.—Court opened Monday for the second day of the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of J. B. Marcum. At 4:35 p. m. the following jury was accepted by both sides: Thomas Northcutt, Berry McNeese, Jasper King, J. W. Slade, D. E. McCauley, Walter Jennings, Paton Kitchen, W. F. Berry, John Repaker, D. E. Fisher, Martin Van Hook, Benjamin Tate. All are farmers except Northcutt, who is a bookkeeper.

The defense filed a demurrer to the indictment, but it was overruled. The defendant waived formal arraignment and pleaded not guilty. The arrest of Capt. B. J. Ewen is now known to be the result of a complete understanding between the civil and the military authorities. Capt. Ewen came here as witness Saturday and returned to Lexington Sunday night, where he gave out an interview that he had been promised military protection and when such was declined he fled for his life and refused to return. Capt. Ewen stated in his interview at Lexington Sunday night that Cynthiana was full of witnesses for the defense and others from Jackson, Ky., and that witnesses for the commonwealth were in danger. Acting on this interview Judge Osborne had Ewen arrested on his return to Cynthiana last night, and he is still held in camp as a prisoner, in which capacity he can be protected to the fullest extent of the military power. Ewen understands why he was arrested and consented to the same. He feels more secure now than for months.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

By Congestive Chill and Died in Few Hours.

Mrs. Emira P. Bates, wife of Archibald Bates, died of a congestive chill Tuesday night, at their home near Kelly. She was taken ill Monday, becoming unconscious in a short while, and remained in that condition until relieved by death.

Mrs. Bates was 87 years old and a native of Vermont. She moved with her husband from the North about 35 years ago and had since resided in the Kelly neighborhood. She is survived by a husband and two sons.

She was a Universalist. The interment took place in the family burying ground Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, services being held at the grave.

DEVOURS DOGS.

Strange Animal Shows Preference For Canine Meat.

A strange animal has been playing havoc with dogs, hogs and sheep west of town. One night this week the "varmint" attacked a dog belonging to Mr. P. C. Carter and killed it. No sooner was the dog dead than it was devoured by the strange animal, nothing but the head being left. Another dog in the same neighborhood was also killed and eaten. Several shots and lambs were devoured in a like manner.

Some of Mr. Carter's family saw the animal, which seemed to be about the size of a large dog, but its body was much longer than that of an ordinary dog and its head very long and pointed.

Mr. Wilson Very Ill.

Mr. R. H. Wilson, of near Pembroke, is dangerously ill and it is feared he will not survive the week. He is suffering from some kidney affection.

BREATHITT TO RUN.

Republicans Say He Will Be Nominated Next Tuesday.

Figures In His Two Former Races for Circuit Judge.

The Republican convention for the Third Judicial District has been called to meet in this city Tuesday, August 4, to nominate a candidate for circuit judge and probably make a nomination also for commonwealth's attorney.

Republican leaders are also for the statement that Judge James Breathitt will be nominated for judge by acclamation. The county mass conventions in the four counties are all expected to instruct for him to-morrow. It is said that Judge Breathitt is not a candidate, but will not decline a unanimous tender of the nomination. If for any reason he is not the nominee, the leaders say some one else will be, either Judge J. L. Landes or Mr. J. W. Dowder.

Judge Breathitt has made two races for circuit judge in the past, in one of which he was successful. For purposes of comparison, we give below the vote in the former contests. In 1895 Judge Breathitt ran against Judge Linn in a State campaign year and was elected by the following vote, majorities being given:

	BREATHITT.	LINK.
Calloway.....	1242	780
Christian.....	107	107
Lyon.....	25	107
Trigg.....	25	107
Total.....	1,267	887
Majority.....	380

In 1897 Judge Breathitt was defeated by Judge Cook by the following vote:

	COOK.	BREATHITT.
Calloway.....	1949	573
Christian.....	2746	3519
Lyon.....	837	744
Trigg.....	1338	1137
Total.....	6870	3973
Majority.....	2897

The last race was made the year the county ticket was elected, when the hot local campaign caused the Republican vote to fall from 4,525 in 1896 to 3,519 in 1897, a decrease of more than 1,000 votes, in this county. The Republicans profess to be lieve that they can elect Judge Breathitt this year with the aid of the influences behind the State campaign.

The Democratic managers, however, feel great confidence in their ability to carry the district.

BADLY CRUSHED.

Well Known Farmer Victim of Serious Accident.

Mr. P. C. Carter, who lives just west of the city, was the victim of a very painful accident a few days ago. He was returning home from this place in a wagon, and was sitting on a large mortar box. The box overturned and Mr. Carter was thrown violently to the ground. The heavy box fell upon him, bruising his hip and leg in a frightful manner. He was taken to his home, where he has since been under the care of a physician.

HEAVY LOOSE SALE.

R. M. Woodbridge & Co., had a heavy sale of the loose weed on the floor Tuesday and prices were very good. The loose sale was made up largely of the lower grades of tobacco.

WILSON WON

In The Redhot Mayoralty Campaign at Bowling Green.

Bowling Green, Ky., July 29.—Mr. George T. Wilson was to-day nominated by the Democrats for Mayor of this city over E. H. Porter by a majority of 101 votes. It was one of the hottest party fights ever made in Bowling Green. The defeated candidate's friends accept the result goodnaturedly, and will be for the ticket. All the Councilmen on the Wilson ticket won. Mr. Porter made the fight on the reform plan and had many of the Christian people with him.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held an all day prayer for the Lord to direct the result. The primary was surprisingly quiet. Wilson is a young man and is proprietor of one of the largest dry goods stores in the City. Mr. Porter is a lawyer and a member of the county court. He was for years editor of a newspaper here and was once public printer. He is a member of one of the most prominent families in the state.

WON FROM HENDERSON.

Local Team Downed the "Hens" at Every Point.

Hopkinsville won three of the four games played here with Henderson this week and the local nine was in a fair way to "make it hot" yesterday afternoon when we received the last report, before preparing to go to press.

In Monday's game the score was 19 to 1; Tuesday's resulted in 11 to 3, and Wednesday's score was 11 to 10. The visitors were outplayed all along the line.

The Hopkinsville club will go to Clarksville this morning for a series of three games—to-day, to-morrow and Monday. Monday night they will return here, accompanied by the Clarksville team, and we will have three games at Athletic park, beginning Tuesday afternoon.

This makes five straight wins from the Henderson team, as the local nine captured the two games played at Henderson Sunday. The Hopkinsville team has been doing some good work recently and if kept up, will soon give it at least third place in the League. The standing of the League teams is given for the week ending July 23. (Official July 23.)

Hopkinsville has gained about 45 points since this table was made up, while Henderson has sustained a corresponding loss.

Farmer's Suicide.

Clarksville, July 27.—John Farley, a respected farmer of this county, committed suicide this morning at his home in New Providence. The instrument used was a shotgun. Seated in a chair, Mr. Farley placed the muzzle of the gun over his heart, saying the trigger with his toe and fell dead, a load of shot entering the heart. He was 40 years old and leaves a wife and several children. Despondency on account of poor health and grief at the loss of a brother recently supposed to have unbalanced his mind.

HIS WORD FOR IT.

No Need for Hopkinsville People to Do Any Guessing.

No need for Hopkinsville people to do any guessing for relief from bad backs, urinary weaknesses and disorders and other symptoms of kidney troubles. A man whom you can believe says that Doan's Kidney Pills will reach all such cases.

C. H. Eades, of the firm of Eades & Davis, proprietors of the Coal Yard on Seventh street and the L. & N. R. R. and who lives at 402 East Seventh street, says: "I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended by persons who had used them that I went to Thomas & Traher's drug store, procured a box and gave them a thorough trial. I had suffered for a long time with a heavy pain across the small of my back, sharp and acute at times. When I caught cold it always settled in my back, and there followed a weakness of the kidneys which was exasperated especially at night. I tried various remedies but none of them gave anything like as satisfactory results as I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am pleased to say that they brought me great relief. I have recommended the pills and will continue to do so to all my friends and acquaintances."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FIERCE FIGHTS IN BREATHITT

Two Men Killed and Two Fatally Wounded in Desperate Affrays.

Clarksville, Ky., July 27.—Reports received here today state that two men were killed in a fight at Long Creek and two were injured in an encounter at Hunting Creek last night. On Monk Creek, twenty miles from here, Garvin Smith was shot through the breast by John Hall and as he lay on the ground with the blood rushing from his wounds, Smith pulled his revolver and shot Hall through the brain. Both men expired at once.

On Hunting Creek, John Stidman and Alex Craft engaged in a fight after a quarrel in a "wild tiger." Stidman drew a knife and Craft a revolver. Craft missed his mark the first two times, but on the third shot he inflicted a fatal wound. Stidman cut Craft about the body and it is said both will die.

NEGROES GOING SOUTH.

Leaving Illinois and Indiana in Numbers, According to Report.

Louisville, Ky., July 25.—A special from Evansville, Ind., says: Many strange negroes have been passing through the city all day en route to the south. Some of them were from Danville, Ill., and points north. One of the refugees stated that over one half of the negroes in Danville intended to leave the state and seek homes in the South. Hundreds of negroes who left this city during the recent riots have not returned. Several towns in Southern Indiana are free from negro inhabitants for the first time in years.

The August National.

American cities present the most remarkable feature of the rapid growth of this continent in population and riches. There has been nothing like it in the whole previous history of the world. The stories of Terre Haute, Columbus, Youngstown and Harrisburg, crisply told and fully illustrated in the National Magazine for August, drive this fact home in the mind of even the least observant. These articles tell how these cities began, what they are and what they are doing. Charles Ferguson's article on the Rise of Free Cities Under the Industrial Order, in the same number, makes clear the larger meanings of this rapid growth city in America. The August National contains also six brilliant short stories, a dozen illustrated articles on various phases of American life, the usual chatty department on Affairs at Washington, Our Army and Navy, Timely Topics of the Stage, Note and Comment and Let's Talk it Over, reflecting the thoughts and deeds of men and women the world over. The illustrations of this number are more than usually numerous and attractive.

TO THE FARMERS OF CHRISTIAN COUNTY.

Please don't forget that the Planters' Insurance Co. of Bowling Green, Ky., was incorporated for the purpose of giving you cheaper insurance and just as safe insurance as any company doing business in this state.

For nearly five years we have been doing this.

We have kept in the pockets of the farmers of Southwestern Kentucky (the difference between our rates and rates of other companies) several Thousands of Dollars which we'd have gone to some Eastern corporation for the same protection that we give them, if we had not been in business.

These statements being true why not patronize your home company? A company that has never failed from its organization to date to pay the face of its policy in case of a total loss.

A company that has no three-fourths clause in its policies. A company that insures nothing but farm property, therefore we have no risk insured where another one can burn it up, making it impossible for us to have an epidemic of losses, which is the cause of so many companies going into liquidation.

Please bear in mind our plan of insurance is not a new one. In Philadelphia over 150 years ago a Mutual or Co-operative company commenced business and is running to this day.

The oldest fire insurance companies in fourteen of the leading states of our union are Mutual or Co-operative companies. We are glad to say that one of these states is old Kentucky. We have in our state nineteen companies which have been running an average time of twenty years each. The oldest one of these companies commenced business over sixty-four years ago. The next over forty-eight years ago. There are nearly two thousand of them in America. In New York 13, in Ohio 13, in Illinois 28, in Pennsylvania 28, in Indiana 20, in Kansas 22, in Nebraska 70, and in Iowa 185.

I will soon be able to print a list which will show the correct number in every state of our Union. According to the above statement which are true, and I challenge any agent to prove that they are not true, does it not seem to you that our plan of insurance is no new scheme, which some agents are trying to make you believe?

If you want good insurance for a much less rate than is charged by other companies, see one of our agents.

P. C. JESSE, Secretary, S. G. BUCKNER, Agt., Hopkinsville, Ky. E. J. MURPHEY, Agt., Pembroke, Ky.

Other good agents are wanted. A good contract will be given to that agent who can devote his entire time to our business.

Look Out for a Chill.

However slight, at this time of year and in this climate, it is a forerunner of Malaria. A disposition to yawn and an out feeling comes even before the chill.

Herbina kills the Malaria germ in its very first stages, or cures the disease at any stage. There are no narcotic poisons in it—a purely natural remedy and absolutely harmless. At drugists, 50 cents per bottle.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) College of Kentucky, offers the following courses of study, viz: Agriculture, Horticulture, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical, Engineering, Electrical, Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate studies are also provided, leading each to a Master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers nearly fifty professors and instructors. COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well-equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The legislature appropriated $50,000 for a college home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. The latter is completed and in use, the former will be ready for occupancy in October.

Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is large in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 604.

Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science. Specialists with necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of College, is the only institution in the commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, university work.

The completion of the college home for young women will provide facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is afforded to them of a thorough education in Classics, Modern Languages, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Logic, Metaphysics, History and Political Economy. No other institution in the State offers the advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

A LEGAL EXPERIENCE.

Criminal Lawyer Made and Won a Bet with the Bench.

Justice F. E. Duncan, of Des Moines, Ia., gained some experience and incidentally lost one dollar to a prominent criminal lawyer recently, says the Green Bag. The lawyer dropped into the justice court one day.

"Are you ready to take up the Ada Hazelwood case?" asked the court.

"Didn't know it was set for to-day," replied the attorney. "Thought it was down for to-morrow."

"No; it was set for to-day, and the witnesses are here."

"Well, let's put it off until to-morrow; we are not ready," pleaded the lawyer.

"Can't do that," ruled the court. "We'll take the state's testimony to-day, and you can put your witnesses on to-morrow."

"Well, you'll have to do it."

"But you a dollar you don't take the state's testimony," said the lawyer.

"Guess we will if I say so."

"Is the bet good?"

"Yes; I'll take it."

"And the money was put up."

"The witnesses for the state in the case against Ada Hazelwood will rise and be sworn," ordered the court.

"No, you don't," retorted the lawyer.

"We waive examination and will go to the grand jury. Give me the two dollars."

"And the court turned over the money."

SURPRISING THE DOCTOR.

Case of Scottish Shrewdness Over-matched by Irish Wit.

Scottish shrewdness is occasionally over-matched by Irish wit. The handful of people who inhabit a certain little island in the Atlantic, off the coast of Donegal, enjoy so much health and so little wealth, that there is no doctor on the spot. In rare cases of emergency a physician is brought in a boat from the nearest village on the mainland.

On one occasion, according to London Tit-Bits, some blunders who were obliged to summon the doctor found that he had gone to Dublin on business. As the case was urgent, they invoked the services of another practitioner. This gentleman was a Scotchman, with the proverbial cannyness of his race, and he declined to undertake the voyage unless he received his fee—a golden sovereign in advance.

There was no help for it, and the money was paid. The physician went to the island and attended to the case. But when he inquired for a boat to take him away he found that no boatman on the island would ferry him back again for any less consideration than two pounds, paid in advance.

The doctor had to part with the two sovereigns and to admit that he had been beaten at his own game.

Cures Sciatica.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, and after vigorous treatment, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, the first application giving my first relief, and the second, entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1 at Bardwick's."

Turder and Suicide.

A man identified as Christian Weiss, of Albany, N. Y., shot and killed an unknown woman in the Morton House, New York, and committed suicide.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

Result of Explosion.

Six persons were killed by an explosion at the Rupert Ice Plant, in New York.

Diphtheria relieved in twenty minutes. Almost miraculous. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

Records Lowered.

The automobile records for from one to fifteen miles were lowered at the Empire City trotting track.

L. & N. Clerk Dead.

Mr. Emory G. Johnson, general clerk of the passenger department of the L. & N., died Monday morning after a long illness.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Tex. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe I could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by C. K. Dead in Paducah Hospital.

C. W. Murchison, a well known Illinois Central railroad engineer, was found dead in the hospital at Paducah.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. M. A. Jolly, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it. Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's."

Prominent Merchant Dead.

Mr. Herman Straus, one of the most prominent merchants of Louisville, died suddenly Monday morning in Europe.

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Death of Railroad President.

F. J. Kimball, president of the Norfolk and Western Railway, died at his summer home at Readnor, Pa., after a month's illness.

About eighteen months ago Mr. W. S. Manning, of Albany, N. Y., widely known in trade circles as the representative of the Albany Chemical Co., was suffering from a protracted attack of diarrhoea. He tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to those similarly afflicted." Sold by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Nebraska's suffering corn crop has been blessed with a good general rain, just in time.

A New York man has just awakened from a sleep lasting forty-four days. There may still be hope for the man who does not advertise.

In only ten of the 96 counties of Tennessee can intoxicating liquors be legally sold. The new prohibition law has made the state almost as dry as a bone.

Chas. B. Poyntz, Democrat, and George Denny, Republican, together with Clerk of the Court of Appeals Sam J. Shackelford, will be the Election Board for this year.

Indiana and Illinois negroes are fleeing to the South for protection. The negro knows where to find his real friends and he knows where he is always safe as long as he behaves himself.

The Evansville & Terre Haute railroad has been sold to the Rock Island system. The E. & T. H. has been the L. & N.'s connecting line between Evansville and Chicago.

The contract for the erection of "The New Kentucky House" at St. Louis has been let to Caldwell & Drake, who are building several other buildings at the fair. The Exhibit Association has raised $30,000 of the $100,000 to be raised.

The body of the late Herman Straus, of Louisville, who died in Europe, is expected to reach New York August 10. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Kohn will accompany Mr. Straus on her return with her husband's corpse.

The two factions of the former People's Party were amalgamated in a National Conference at Denver this week. The split resulted from the determination of one faction to advocate fusion. The survivors announce that they are done with fusion.

A bumble bee is not large but he has a way of making his influence felt. Fred Rieder, near Evansville, lost his business this week on account of a bumble bee stung stirred up by the flames. The bee fought off the firemen and prevented them from putting out the fire.

Rev. J. O. Rust has reconsidered his decision to remove to Seattle, which leads the Nashville American to say:

"The decision of Dr. J. O. Rust to stay in Nashville is a matter of public congratulation. The city can ill afford to lose so public-spirited a leader of men."

A mistake was made by a lynch party near Savannah, Ga., a few days ago and an innocent negro was lynched. He was mistaken for Ed Claus, a negro who assaulted Miss Susie Johnson, a school teacher. He protested his innocence and begged for time to prove an alibi and since he was put to death it has been found that the real Ed Claus is still at large and that the unknown man lynched was in deed innocent, although the girl identified him as her assailant.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contains Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. We are sorry to see Prof. Livingston McCartney going into politics. He is every inch a gentleman and one of the most accomplished teachers in the state, but has never been identified with Kentucky schools, except during his career here and at Henderson as superintendent of the city schools. He came here from Nebraska and brought with him some ideas about school books and school discipline that caused much complaint in the Hopkinsville schools, though Prof. McCartney, backed by an indignant board, labored hard to reconcile the patrons to his ideas. After Prof. McCartney became "acclimated," he himself realized that Southern people are not yet ready for Northern methods and "down East" books, some of them filled with slanders on Southern people. Prof. Jas. H. Fuqua is one of the best school men in Kentucky, who has spent all his life in the state, and there would be no risk to run in his election.

Bro. Glenn, of the Madisonville Graphic, says he is unable to make up his mind whether to vote for N. B. Hays or W. M. Beckner for attorney general. Bro. Glenn's mind balked on the easiest proposition in State politics this year. Hays, the gallant mountain Democrat, clean, honest and commanding the respect of even his political opponents, is a man whom every Democrat should take pleasure in supporting. On the other hand, to put it mildly, Judge Beckner is the weakest man on the Republican ticket.

The Courier-Journal, Fulton Leader, Paducah Register and Paducah News-Democrat, Owensboro Messenger and Braidenburg Messenger are among the Democratic papers that have not yet placed the State tickets at their "mashheads." They are acting in a senseless manner, for the people have been on a political strain over the State ticket for nearly a year already and are tired of politics. It is a good idea to give them a brief respite until the campaign opens in earnest.

The Rev. Robert J. Burdette, more widely, if not better known as Bob Burdette, the humorist, says: "Moses was rich beyond all estimation, but we think of him only as a friend of God, not as a Morgan." There is a difference between Moses and Morgan which Mr. Burdette failed to mention. The former got water out of rocks and the latter got his rocks out of water.—Louisville Times.

The official killer has received a hurry order to proceed at once to Covington, Ky. In that city Wednesday Miss Bertha Steinforth was introduced to John W. Hillman and they, with Chas. Eberenz and Miss Lula Mehlmann, walked to a corner drug store to get some soda water. While on the street, Miss Steinforth, in a spirit of bravado, proposed that the party have a double wedding. All consented and they were married after midnight. Miss Mehlmann's father refused to let his daughter return home when notified of the escape.

The second trial of Jett and White is in progress at Cynthiana. Capt. B. J. Ewen has told about the same story he did at Jackson and other witnesses have been found to corroborate him. The prosecution confidently expects to convict both men, but if the law is permitted to take its course, they may soon realize that justice, when public opinion demands it, can sometimes be both sure and swift.

Judge Jos. E. Robbins, of Mayfield, has gone to Georgetown to preside at the Caleb Powers trial, which begins next Monday. Judge Robbins is by nature upright, honorable and fair, and Powers is assured of an impartial trial.

ELECTING A POPE.

The Catholic conclave of cardinals to choose a successor to Pope Leo XIII will meet to-day to organize and 62 of the 64 cardinals are already in Rome to take part in the election. One of the absentees is too feeble to attend and the other is on the sea en route from Australia and cannot reach Rome until August 20, by which time it is expected the election will be over. Only one of the 64 cardinals is an American, Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore. He is said to favor Cardinal Vannutelli for Pope. One of the 62 men in the conclave will be chosen, Oreglia, Vannutelli, Rampolla, Srampa, Gotti and Dipietro being the leading candidates. The last named is said to be gaining favor as a compromise candidate.

The cardinals are required to go into executive session and remain together day and night, absolutely shut out from communication with the outside world, until an election results. Each cardinal is kept in a cell at night and Cardinal Vannutelli drew number 13, which has been taken as a bad omen by the superstitious.

Cardinal Rampolla has the advantage of being the dead Pope's personal choice for the succession. The last election of a Pope was in 1878 when Cardinal Pecci, afterwards Leo XIII, was chosen after a long deadlock, as a "dark horse." If another deadlock results, Cardinal Moran, of Australia, may arrive in time to break a tie. The sick cardinal is Celeste, of Palermo.

Hunter Doll, a railroad man from Knoxville, Tennessee, has sprung a sensation in Washington by marrying the rich widow of the late Senator Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota. She is still "a strikingly handsome woman," though the papers are silent as to her age.

DOESN'T FAVOR LYNCHINGS.

But Gen. Lee Tells Why They So Very Often Occur.

Kansas City, July 29.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, was in Kansas City this morning on his way to make an address at the Chautauqua assembly at Beloit, Kas. Speaking of lynching, Gen. Lee said: "I don't believe in lynching. Nobody believes in lynching. Be careful that you get that right. I don't believe in lynching. Nobody does. However, there is one of the objects attained by lynching that is seldom considered. If a man, say a negro, should assault a woman, perhaps some very dear relative of yours, he has got to be killed or arrested."

"If the negro is arrested after his crime and brought into the court with his jury, it is law, the woman, the one who has suffered already, is the principal. She must appear and perhaps under the cross-examination of lawyers relate even details of the assault, thus subjecting her to humiliation to an extreme degree."

With this statement, which Gen. Lee did not make as an argument, he ended his interview.

AWFUL CRASH.

That Killed And Wounded 80 People

Lowell, July 29.—An explosion destroyed the magazine of the United States Cartridge Co., located in Tewksbury, today caused the death of probably 25 persons and injured more than 50 others, set fire to a number of buildings in the vicinity and caused a general wreck of houses within a radius of half a mile.

The concussion was felt in Boston 40 miles away, and at Exeter, N. H., which is a greater distance from Lowell. At many points a score of miles distant window glass was shattered and other damage done. In some cases there were reports that there had been an earthquake.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED.

General Health Greatly Improved by Peruna.

MRS. M. J. DANLEY.

Mrs. M. J. Danley, Treasurer of the Robeson Lodge, I. O. O. F., writes from 124 First street, N., Minneapolis, Minn.: "I was afflicted for several years with kidney trouble which became quite serious and caused me considerable anxiety. I spent hundreds of dollars trying to be cured, but nothing gave me any permanent relief until I tried Peruna. It took less than three months and only ten bottles to effect a permanent cure, but they were worth more than as many hundred dollars to me. I am fully restored to health, know neither ache nor pain and enjoy life."—Mrs. M. J. Danley.

This experience has been repeated many times. We hear of such cases nearly every day.

DEAD BODY FOUND

Near Railroad Track—Man Was Probably Murdered.

The dead body of Samuel Searcy, aged 30 years, of Central City, was found lying in a ditch on the side of the railroad, a few hundred yards north of Nortonville. The back of his head was crushed in and one arm was broken. It is not believed that he was struck by a train, but that he was the victim of foul play, and the coroner's jury so returned their verdict.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Editors Make Side Trip in South Dakota.

Something About the People Who Met as Strangers and Parted as Friends.

Edgemont, S. D., July 21.—At Gardiner, Montana, the northern entrance to Yellowstone Park, the government is constructing an ornamental and massive gateway marking the boundary of the Park. It is of granite brought from the national reserve and on either side the big gate is flanked by walls of masonry, surmounted by higher walls of great unheven logs, showing the wonderful timber resources of this mountain region.

The depot of the Northern Pacific is a very handsome little building, and between the depot and the entrance to the Park is a little court in which a small lake has been made, the road extended around both sides of the lake.

Resuming the journey by rail at Gardiner the editors of the National Editorial Association went northward to Livingston, Montana, 55 miles, where a stop of several hours had to be made. It was the junction point with the main line of the Northern Pacific and the sleepers were left here about eleven o'clock until they were picked up by an eastward bound train the next morning at 5 o'clock. But their occupants were a tired set of excursionists and they were wrapped in the arms of Morpheus throughout the long wait, oblivious of the fact that they were at a standpoint. A few of the "Rough Riders" in the crowd came in about one o'clock and crawled into their "uppers" as quietly as possible. They had been out inspecting the town and all united in the opinion that Livingston was the biggest little town they had found in the West. It has a population of about 4,000, but it is really a city of metropolitan pretensions, all right, open city at that. All night saloons, dance halls and eating houses were running everywhere and there was no scarcity of "hot times" in town every night in the week.

Montana is a very large state and all day to-day we have been running through its changing scenery. As the higher mountains were left behind, some good grazing and farming lands were found and in the valley of the Yellowstone river, which flows into the Missouri, there are many fine ranches.

At Billings, Montana, we left the Northern Pacific and more struck the great Burlington system, a road that has been very kind and liberal in all its dealings with the editors. During the day we passed the Crow Indian Reservation and saw many of the Indians about the railroad stations. About a mile from the railroad was pointed out to us the scene of Gen. Custer's massacre in 1876. A monument marks the spot where the brave Indian fighter met his fate in a battle in which not a white man lived to tell the tale. Running in a south-easterly direction, the road soon crossed the state line into Northern Wyoming, and Sheridan and other prosperous towns were passed. After dark we passed into South Dakota, and reached this place at 9 o'clock. Our party will divide here. We have been traveling in two sleepers, with 65 people in the party. It has been decided by the occupants of one car to make no further stops, but to proceed at once to Omaha and thence to their respective homes. The connection here necessitates a lay over of nearly a whole day to get to Deadwood in the Black Hills, 107 miles north, at which a stopover was planned when we left Omaha. This side trip will take three days and only about 30 of the party decided to take it. The writer was one of those tired of sight seeing and so he took a reluctant leave of the Black Hills party and will start home to-night. The run to Omaha and on to St. Louis will be through another fine farming section extending for hundreds of miles. Running from one end of Nebraska to the other, we will see much of the state that has raised this year a wheat crop of 80,000,000 bushels. We will also pass through Lincoln, the capital of the state and the home of W. J.

TWO MORE WEEKS FOR THE WHIP AND LASH FINISH.

The contest for the honor of being the ugliest man in Christian country will close on August 15, now but more than two weeks off. The race has come down to a close finish between several candidates who are energetically pushing their claims. The pictures of four of them are presented to-day and the most casual observer will see at a glance that all of them have strong claims to popular support.

Charlie Smithson until recently maintained a strong lead, but Aubrey Tuggle has forged to the front and with the assistance of his lady friends is still setting the pace at the present time. But the figures given do not mean that each candidate's strength is fully represented. Just as was done in our Popular Lady Contest last spring, the candidates this time are holding back their coupon strength for the final count. Just to what extent this is being done only, the interested parties know.

The friends of all of the contestants who owe for the KENTUCKIAN, or who desire to subscribe in order to help their favorites, can by paying the subscription price get 20 votes for each dollar paid. Only a few days more remain to get in your votes. Don't put it off. The figures below show the present standing:

Tutt's Pills

FOR TORPID LIVER.
A torpid liver deranges the whole system, and produces

There is no better remedy for these common diseases than DR. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS, as a trial will prove.

Trial of Jett-White Cases.
Trial of the Jett White Cases was begun at Cynthiana. Judge Osborne is keeping the soldiers in the background, but allows an escort of bluecoats for Capt. Ewen, the star witness, who took alarm and went to Lexington.

Repulsive Features.
Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features, which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Preparing for Papal Conclave.

Cholera Infantum.
This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle, and a cure is certain. For sale by C. K. Wylie, druggist.

Thirteen Killed.
Thirteen killed and a score injured is the record of an excursion train accident in Scotland.

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and when blood poison develops, sometimes result in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment. When applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without maturation, and prevents any danger of blood poison. For sale by C. K. Wylie, druggist.

Prisoners Escape.
Eight prisoners made their escape from the jail at Middlesboro, Ky.

A SUSPICIOUS CASE.

A Sleuth and His Luck in a Supposed Pool Room.
"Do you know," said the sleuth from headquarters, "I'm beginning to think that place is a pool room?"
"You don't mean it?" said the plain clothes man. "Why, I thought they were all closed up in this precinct."

"Well, I'm afraid not. I think I've discovered one."
"What makes you think so?"
"Well, I went in there last Monday—had a tip on a horse at good odds and played him."
"Did they take the bet?"
"Yes, and when the horse won, the cashier paid up like a little man."

"That's queer! However, I wouldn't be too hasty about the matters."
"That's what I thought. So on Tuesday I tried again. Played another horse, won, and got the money."
"Well, it does begin to look suspicious!"
"Yes, I thought I'd keep my eye on the place and continue to investigate. So on Wednesday I went in again, played, and came out ahead; and by Jove on Thursday I cut another warner!"

"You don't say. Anything doing Friday?"
"Not on your life! Friday isn't my lucky day. I never investigate pool rooms on Friday."
"How about Saturday?"
"Well, to tell the truth, I went out Friday night and blew in some of the money and I didn't feel well Saturday."

"I see. But I must say it looks to me like a pool room."
"Yes, but there's just one thing about it I don't understand. When I go to a pool room I generally lose, but here I've won four times in succession. Now, isn't that almost enough to make a man doubt whether it is really a pool room?"
"Well, yes. I'd hesitate to raid a place where I was having such a streak as that."

"I'm going to keep right at it. Going to start in tomorrow. If the luck changes I may decide to have the place pulled."
"That's it. By the way, if you think you have real good thing, you might let me know. I wouldn't mind helping you hunt for the evidence. So long."—William E. McKenna, in Philadelphia Ledger.

THE LAKE DWELLERS.

Brief Description of One of the Earliest People of Europe.
The Lake Dwellers, the ancient predecessors of the Swiss, were a wave of that great tide which set in toward Europe from the east—choosing chiefly the inland seas and ascending rivers as their roadways, or rather waterways, to new regions, where they could replenish the tenanted earth.

Naturally such tribes, accustomed to water, chose water wherein to found their first settlements. Moreover, the long, narrow causeways of wood, that led from the shore to their habitations, became a protection to them from wild beasts, or wilder human enemies. Also the waters supplied them with ready food, and were as nature's own dairies amidst the shaggy mountains and impenetrable forests, the mere fringe of which they with difficulty cut away for household purposes. Advanced into the free lake, the settlers could look around them and breathe the air of Heaven. Herodotus has described similar lacustrine dwellings belonging to the Paenonians, who had settled on Lake Prasias in Turkey.

DELVING UNDER THE SURFACE.

Scientist Advocates Plan by Which to Study Earth's Interior.
While the upper air is being studied with kites and balloons, and deep-sea divers are making the ocean bottom better known than much dry land, the earth's interior remains almost as great a mystery as ever. M. A. Laisant advocates an international underground survey by means of hundreds of subterranean observatories at varying depths down to a mile or even more. These observatories would take the form of deep borings, like artesian wells, which in the making would yield important geological information, and when completed would receive registering apparatus to record temperature, pressure, electrical and magnetic state, etc. The composition among the gases would be among the problems to be studied. Some of the observatories would be in ground of normal condition, and others would be in places showing peculiar phenomena, as near hot springs and old volcanoes. With daily underground observations over a large part of the world important results should be expected.

THE NEWCOMER.

Lucky If He Escapes Harsher Fate Than a Nickname.

The instinctive attitude toward strangers of people in self-contained communities, in which there is but little coming and going, is one of hostility, says the London Globe. Traces of this feeling—a survival, surely, from the days of the tribal or village community—are still to be found even in many places where the immense increase of facilities for intercommunication have broken up and almost abolished the old, isolated modes of life. There are still old world rural parts where those who come from or belong to other districts are generally styled "furriners." But this is really a survival of medievalism.

Connected with the old hostile attitude toward the outsider is the custom, which is found all over the world, of dubbing the newcomer, whether to country or town, or profession, with a nickname, humorous or satirical. In the far west of America or Canada he who comes fresh from the east or from Europe is a "tenderfoot." Originally, no doubt, the name was almost literally true. A backwoodsman, or frontiersman, is a tolerably tough and hardened individual, and a newcomer from more civilized parts would probably find he deserved the name of "tenderfoot" before he had been long on the tramp. But, of course, the epithet soon gained a wider application, and became a label for a fresh arrival of any kind. Another western name of like meaning was "pilgrim."

In India, for many a long year, the newcomer has usually been known as a "griffin," usually shortened to "griff," but no one has yet been able to explain the origin of the term. As a "griffin" is naturally green to the ways of the country, it is not surprising to find the word turned into a verb, as shown in the following fragment of an Anglo-Indian ballad:

He deemed no sin
To griff a hapless friend—plain English—
(take him in!)

In the Malay peninsula newly imported Chinese coolies are known as "sinkeys," but why we cannot say. Australia, of course, has its own nicknames for the newcomer. When he arrives fresh from the old country he is a "new chum" or a "lime-juice," and usually bears the marks of his newness thick upon him in the shape of his clothes, the topics of his talk, and the like. If he goes inland, or up country, as the Australians would say, and settles down on a sheep or cattle station, so as to get practically acquainted with the work on a large run, and thus learn the details essential to successful sheep or cattle farming, he is known at first as a "colonial experience" or a "jackaroo."

The application of nicknames is not confined to fresh immigrants in any country or colony. The habit is found in existence in many other directions. In military slang a recruit is a "rookie," and many other occupations have parallel nicknames for the novice, the raw hand, the greenhorn who is not necessarily a simpleton. "Greenhorn" itself was used in the seventeenth century as a name for a raw recruit; while "greener" is commonly used in London at the present time among sweating employers as a term for newly-arrived foreigners in south of work, who are just the material to serve the sweater's purpose. At English universities, again, the undergraduate in his first year has been known for centuries as a "freshman," which recent Oxford slang, with its idiotic love for making "er" a universal termination, turns into "fresher."

Across the Atlantic the freshman is similarly used, while a second year student is dubbed a "sophomore," a name unknown on this side. In an American university, when a man enters college in the "sophomore" year, having passed his freshman year elsewhere, he gets the portentous name of "freshman-sophomore," naturally shortened into the charming locution, "fresh-soph." At German universities men rejoice in a variety of strange names. In one of the chapters of Longfellow's "Hyperion" the reader may make the acquaintance of the Nasty-Foxes, otherwise freshmen; Branders, or second-term men; mossy-heads, old ones and princes of twilight. Most of them sound delightfully meaningless, which is one of the recognized beauties of cant terms.

IN NAME ONLY

Was She Gen. Clay's Wife, Says Dora Brock.

She Emphatically Denies That Her Child is Heir to the Estate at Whitehall.

Lexington, Ky., July 28.—Mrs. Dora Clay Brock says the report that she will claim that her six-year-old son, Cassius Marcellus Clay, of Whitehall, who died last week, leaving a will which the children will contest, is untrue. She says she never occupied the reputation of wife to General Clay.

"He loved me and I tried to love him. He looked upon me as a child and cared for me as he would his own daughter," she said to-day. "He bought me toys and candy and sat me on his knee and told me stories of his great work in behalf of the negro before the war and of his great times in Russia, where he was a favorite in the court. 'He would talk to me by the hour when we were alone and finally he would send me off to bed, retiring in his own room. Sometimes in the night he would come to see if I was comfortable and spread blankets over me.'"
